3rd Brigade Combat Team Redeployment Ceremony

WHO: 3rd Brigade Combat Team, 25th Infantry Division

WHAT: Bronco Redeployment Ceremony

WHERE: Weyand Field, Schofield Barracks, Hawaii

WHEN: May 11, 2012 at 10 a.m.

WHY: To officially welcome back 3rd Brigade Combat Team and unveil the brigade's colors back on American soil.

BACKGROUND: The Bronco Brigade has spent the last year in the eastern region of Afghanistan in support of Operation Enduring Freedom. Soldiers of the Bronco Brigade have spent the last year conducting counter insurgency operations in some of the most deadly provinces in Afghanistan, to include the highly kinetic Kunar province, home to the Pech River Valley. They have seen many victories and made a distinguishable difference during their time serving the Afghan people.

May 11 will be a day for all units of the Division to honor the Bronco Brigade's hard work and officially welcome the unit back onto American soil. The Bronco Brigade's colors will be unfurled officially, to mark their return.

MEDIA NOTE: Media interested in attending this ceremony must RSVP Staff Sgt. Amber Robinson via email at: amber.d.robinson@us.army.mil or call (315)-608-1860. We ask all media wishing to attend be present at Lyman gate at 9 a.m. Please RSVP NLT May 10.
