America's Pacific Division

The 25th Infantry Division has a connection to Hawaii spanning over seventy-five years. The division was formed at Schofield Barracks on October 1941 from the Hawaiian Division, which was inactivated after defending the islands since 1921. Hawaii has always been the home of the 25th Infantry Division; after every deployment since the Korean War, Tropic Lightning returned to its post on the Leilehua Plain. The 25th Infantry Division continues to be inspired by the courage and professionalism of the Hawaiian Warriors of old, exemplified by the red and yellow Taro leaf on our unit patch.

The Division Motto

The 25th Infantry Division used "Lightning" as the call-sign for the Division Headquarters' in Guadalcanal in 1942. Lightning was subsequently changed to "Tropic Lightning" because the Division spent the year at war in the tropics. In a break from tradition, the Department of the Army officially approved the use of the nickname "Tropic Lightning" on 03 August 1953 authorizing the Division to use the nickname, in addition to its regular numerical designation, marked the first time that a divisional unit had been given this kind of permission by the Army. "Ready to Strike, Anytime, ... Anywhere!" "Tropic Lightning!"

The Division Song (Tropic Lightning March)

The Tropic Lightning March is the official song of the 25th Infantry Division. The Division song concludes unit level reviews, parades and honor guard ceremonies. Individuals will stand at attention and sing the lyrics of the Tropic Lightning March when the Division song is played. Individuals will stand at attention during the playing of official songs of other units.

We strike like Tropic Lightning,
We're trained and we're ready to fight
The Twenty-fifth has written tales of glory,
We can always add another story.
Through the whole Pacific,
Our answer will always be swift!
We're tough,
We're ready for whatever mission.
We are the Twenty-fifth!

The Division Patch

The 25th Infantry Division shoulder patch was approved after the Division's activation in 1941. It has a gold lightning bolt superimposed on a taro leaf. The Bolt of Lightning symbolizes speed and aggressive spirit – a trait the Division proved in its battles for the Pacific and continued in Korea, Vietnam, Haiti, Bosnia, Iraq and Afghanistan. The Taro leaf shape of the shoulder patch reflects the birth of the 25th Infantry Division from elements of the famous Hawaiian Division and is representative of the Pacific region where the Division was established and first fought. The red and gold colors of the patch were used by the late Hawaiian monarchy to indicate royalty.

Distinctive Unit Insignia: Centered on a black volcano emitting a gold cloud, a vertical lightning flash that is divided red above and gold below all enclosed by a pair of green palm branches with stems crossed in base and leaves terminating at either side of the cloud above.

Symbolism: The lightning flash, adopted from the shoulder sleeve insignia of the 25th Infantry Division and the enclosing palm branches allude to the Division nickname "Tropic Lightning". The erupting volcano is an allusion to the State of Hawaii.

Background: The distinctive insignia was authorized on 21 Apr 1965. It was amended on 18 May 1972 to correct the nickname of the 25th Infantry Division in the symbolism.
