

Steps to Registering Your POV

- Steps In Order:
 1. Obtain Valid Hawaii POV Insurance
 2. Hawaii State Safety Check
 3. Non-Resident Certificate Form CSL50
 4. Register POV

Hawaii POV Insurance

- Hawaii is a “No Fault State” and has special POV insurance requirements
- Contact your insurer before you arrive and make sure:
 - Your policy will be valid in Hawaii
 - Your insurance card meets Hawaii’s requirements
- Your proof of insurance must meet Hawaii’s requirements prior to completing the registration process.

Safety Check

- Hawaii requires initial and annual POV safety checks
- Most auto repair shops and the post auto craft shop conduct these safety checks (cost is $15.50 + tax)
- Initial Inspection
 - You'll get a BLUE "Pending Registration" certificate and take to DMV
 - After registration at the DMV, come back to inspection station and get your PINK and YELLOW copies. They are good for one year
- Common Friction Points
 - Not having valid Hawaii proof of insurance
 - Not having current registration (Out of State is okay for initial check)
 - Excessive window tint

Vehicle Registration

- Vehicles must be registered within 30 days of arriving in Hawaii.
 - Provide a current registration card in your name.
 - Present your vehicle inspection certificate.
 - Complete the Out-Of-State Vehicle Permit application form CS-L (MVR) 27.
 - Submit the shipping receipt or bill of lading documenting the date of arrival.
 - Cost is a set rate of $20.50, cash or check with Non-Resident Form
- If you wish to keep previous state registration:
 - Obtain a safety check inspection and submit an "out-of-state vehicle permit application form" within 30 days. Considering that the approved "out-of-state vehicle permit" is only valid until the original registration's expiration date or for 12 months (whichever occurs first).
 - If you choose this route, you will be exempt from the annual weight tax and any excise taxes in Hawaii.

DMV is located with the Police Station at 330 N. Cane Street, Wahiawa, HI 96786
